In the Rear View Mirror

This month has been absolutely incredible. During the week leading up to Easter, we held services each night from Tuesday to Sunday, walking through the biblical account of the betrayal of Jesus, His judgment, crucifixion, death, burial, and resurrection. It was amazing to listen as Pastor Weimer taught on details of the celebration of Passover and how all of the events of that week directly correspond to the events of Exodus as God's chosen people left Egypt. God's Word is truly incredible. His purpose and design are nothing short of divine. On Easter Sunday, we had wonderful services and saw two women baptized! What a great way to celebrate Christ's resurrection by seeing two souls follow God's Word and take the first step of obedience. One of the most precious events of this month was the blessing we were able to offer to a widow in our church. We had the privilege of decorating her husband's grave with a mosaic of lava rocks that we collected. It was such a special opportunity to show honor in this way.

The Road Ahead

As the month of May unfolds with longer days and fresh opportunities, we're excited to share the events just around the corner. This week, we will host a baby shower for Jenn and Gustav, a couple who have been a great blessing to our church. They will, unfortunately, also be moving to Sweden near the end of this month and will be greatly missed. We are excited for them as they become new parents and will continue praying for them. Both Megumi and I are thoroughly enjoying teaching Icelandic Sunday School classes each week.

Continued Blessings

Each week, we are still able to pick up many people for church. We are able to transport several of our church members to and from church from Reykjavik (about 45 minutes away from the church). We also pick up and drop off children for our Icelandic services and bring several teens to their homes after teen church on Thursdays. We average over 1,000 miles each month with just these trips. We have also been able to host many people at our home this past month, which has been a continued theme since our move to Reykjavik. We are so grateful for God's blessings and cannot wait to see what is coming next.

Sincerely,

-The Sears Family
