In the Rear View Mirror

What a great month of growth and opportunities we saw this month! I have had the tremendous privilege of teaching our men's Bible study every other week for the past few months. In the picture on the right, you can see the group of men that have been joining us. Two of the men in this picture are visitors that we are praying will continue to join our services. Majik is a Polish man who is training to become a pilot here in Iceland. Brynjólfur is an Icelandic man who has been attending quite regularly this month. We are praying that God would begin working in his heart to use him for His glory. The past several weeks here in Iceland have been incredibly hot with a high of 73.4° F. We took advantage of the opportunity and mowed the lawn at our church as a family. Megumi strapped

Amelia to her back and went to work, and yes, I mowed the lawn too. I only stopped for a moment to take this picture. Everett joined in the work by picking up trash, rocks, and pulling weeds. It was such a great time serving the Lord together. We also were privileged to meet up with the Pickering family from NC and enjoyed some great fellowship over a meal during their 24-hour layover here in Iceland. It is always such an encouragement to know that there are people who are continually praying for us.

The Road Ahead

As we continue working through these weeks of summer, we are striving to reach out to our community through a variety of ways. Please pray with us as we try to reach this country with the gospel. On the first day of June, not only will Megumi and I celebrate six years of marriage, but we will also hold an End of School party during our Icelandic Children's service. We have learned that holding big days has been a fantastic way to bring new guests in to hear the truth of God's word. June will be a busy month as we have a couple of visitors coming. My sister Brittany will be coming up for a week to spend time with us and do some touring. A team of workers will also be coming up at the end of June from Morning Side Baptist Church to work around our church property in a variety of ways. Please join us in prayer that we would follow God's leading and that He would continue to give grace to fulfill what He has called us to do.

Sincerely,

-The Sears Family
