In the Rear View Mirror

After a whirlwind and rather unpredictable month, we are praising God for many things accomplished. We kicked off October taking the opportunity to pass out some more of our new church invitations. Our children love doing this and always want to be involved. It is such a joy to see that they want others to come to church and experience what God has in store for them. Not long after, we began preparing for a wedding of a young lady in our church. With many things to, build, organize, decorate, and see through, we spent many hours in anticipation of this. It was a beautiful opportunity to be reminded of what Jesus says regarding the marriage of a man and a woman. Of course, Jesus says, "What God hath joined together, let not man put asunder." But also what an amazing teaching about how a husband should leave his father and mother and be joined to his bride. Jesus ties this together as a representation of what He did for the church. I am so grateful that God loves us enough to have given Himself for us. As we approached the end of the month, we were caught by surprise with a snowstorm. While we do not usually see snow in October, this was a particularly special event. With a total of 40 cm (15.75 inches) we beat the previous October snowfall record, which was 15 cm (5.9 inches) in 1921. We are grateful that William and Phyllis Weimer have returned to Iceland. With our team back in place, we are looking forward to seeing more accomplished for Christ's kingdom as we keep pressing on.

The Road Ahead

With the holidays right around the corner, we are very excited to see how God uses our church to share the gospel. This month we will be holding our annual Thanksgiving meal outreach where we invite special guests to join us for a family-style dinner with games, and, of course, a gospel presentation. Please pray with us as we continue searching for open doors through which we can show people the wonderful news of Jesus's free gift of eternal life through faith in His finished work on the cross.

Sincerely,

-The Sears Family
