In the Rear View Mirror

February has been a productive month! We assisted William Weimer with a successful teen activity, taking many teens ice skating as a reward for regular attendance to our mid-week services. After ice skating, we played games, ate great food, and heard God's Word taught. It's a joy to see these young people faithfully attend church. Out of the 25 teenagers who attend, only one has a parent who also attends our adult services. Please pray for these teens, who face pressure to abandon God and live according to their desires. They are the next generation of Christians in Iceland, and without prayer and purposeful scriptural teaching, many will follow the world's expectations.

In addition to our regular services, projects, and planning, I've been working on two technology advancements for our church. The first is a database to keep track of attendance for all services. The second is an audiobook of the Icelandic Bible we use. The Icelandic Bible Society has copyright on this Bible, so I'm pursuing permission to produce and share it. I'm using a Text-to-speech program that supports quality reading of the Icelandic Bible. There may be reasons why they won't allow this, so please pray that God would put it in their hearts to grant permission. While it's a luxury to have the Bible read aloud, it would be a fantastic resource for our community.

The Road Ahead

As we prepare more and more for summer camp, we are praying that God would move the hearts of people and churches to sponsor a child for $200 per person. We operate this camp 100% free to attendees; however, we offer food, merch, games, prizes, and more to all who come. Join us in prayer that this would be a tremendous success in reaching those who attend. We are praying that God would speak directly to hearts, influencing them to make lasting decisions for Christ. Thank you for your faithful prayer and support of our ministry. God is truly blessing; in recent months, we have seen growth in nearly every service.

Family visit!

Megumi's mom will be with us for two weeks this month. We are very excited to have her. Everett and Amelia are absolutely ecstatic for Amma's arrival.

Sincerely,
