October 2026

In the Rear View Mirror

Since the last week of September, Pastor Patrick has been in the U.S. In his absence, Megumi and I have been able to hold the fort down. Things here have been incredibly busy (hence the late prayer letter) but so amazing. The Larson Family (a missionary family to Iceland) are nearing the end of deputation and were able to come to Iceland for three weeks to help in many ways. From painting rooms, to supervising, teaching, and preaching, they have been a tremendous help to this ministry. We have endeavored to keep every service alive as best as we can. At the time of this letter, we have only four service days until Pastor Patrick and Mrs. Vicki arrive back in Iceland. Amazingly, we have experienced tremendous attendance over these past several weeks with an attendance of 70 in our Icelandic ministry on Sunday afternoons. This is the largest attendance we have seen all year. We are so grateful for the group of workers from our church that have rallied around the ministry and pitched in however they could. Of course, my opportunities to preach have been much more than normal during this time, and I greatly enjoyed the opportunity to teach and preach what God has shown me.

The Road Ahead

As I already mentioned, we still have four service days before our pastor returns, and we would appreciate your prayers during this time. We are attempting to show the love of God and teach this community about the beautiful life that God has available for them if they would simply trust Him. We will be holding a teen outreach event with laser-tag and nachos Wednesday the 11th. Please pray that God would give safety and wisdom during this. The week after our pastor returns, we will be holding our annual Thanksgiving outreach event. For this event, we encourage each member of our church to seek out one special guest that they could invite to this meal. We have seen this event in years past be a tremendous success and opportunity to open the door to homes that have never heard the gospel before. Please pray that many guests would come for this and that there would be a sweet spirit of reception towards the word of God. Thank you as always for your continued support. We love you all and cannot wait to update you with good news after November.

Sincerely,
-The Sears Family
